

we regret to inform our readers that in 1966AR, the Turkish successful move from the Gulf of Lyon to Spain was not specifically reported. This fleet is now on the South coast of Spain.

Jerry Jacks, the player for England, has resigned. The position of England will not be replaced. In the event that Jacks submits future moves for England, I will accept them.

There was little action this season. The positions seem to have consolidated; need one fear that the course of the game will be affected by noting that France and Russia have tended to dominate their respective halves of the board?

Deadline for Fall orders is 15 July, 1967 !!!!!!!

press section...

Edinburgh...The Supreme Anarch invaded the British Isles, accidentally, while escaping the Russian army in Vienna. "I must have taken a wrong turn, somewhere..." said the Anarch. Taking advantage of the great British dissatisfaction with the European War, he organized a massive general strike of the British armed forces. A Russian Army maneuvering in the Edinburgh area was picketed. "General Ivanaki (commander of the Russian Army) is a Scab" the Supreme Anarch commented. As the Russian Army tried to capture the Anarch, he stretched his hand over the Norwegian Sea, and walked across as the waters parted.

St. Petersburg- The Supreme Anarch, asked how he got back to Russia, explained that the Norwegian Sea was controlled by a striking British Fleet. "Therefore", he said, "it was obviously a Red Sea!"

GROAN

Due to the call to duty, your tired (and deaf) gamesmaster will not be within reach of anybody for the first two weeks of July. I shall have a military address, but I anticipate that mail delivery will not be reliable enough to justify publishing a temporary address.

The Turks have a choice of treating the dislodged A Bul to Con or letting that army be removed from play. Italy and England seem to be pretty much removed from play.
